

Archie's parents lose bid to challenge court ruling that denied move to hospice

Archie Battersbee's parents have been refused permission to appeal against the High Court's decision which denied them the right to have their son moved from hospital to a hospice to die...

Read More