

'Biggest emergency incident' declared in North Korea after first official COVID infections confirmed

North Korea has announced its first official COVID infections, with its leader Kim Jong Un ordering a strict lockdown in response...

Read More