

Cinderella cast members call for compensation after show cancelled

Performing arts union Equity is calling for compensation for both current and future cast members of Cinderella after it was announced the West End show would close...

Read More