

Government backs UN bid to stop Archie's life support treatment being ended

The government's legal advisers have asked the High Court to "urgently consider" a request by the UN to stop life support treatment being ended for 12-year-old Archie Battersbee...

Read More