

'I'm not jumping in after you': Police officers placed on leave after watching man beg for help and drown

Three police officers in Arizona have been placed on paid leave after they refused to rescue a homeless man from drowning in a lake...

Read More