MP who travelled between Scotland and London in 2020 admits breaching COVID rules

Former SNP MP Margaret Ferrier, who now sits as an independent after having the whip removed, has pleaded guilty to breaching COVID rules after being told to self-isolate early on in the pandemic…

Read More